(THIS FORM MUST BE RENEWED EACH YEAR)

Oklahoma City University offers Full (100%) tuition remission per semester to United Methodist ministers, who are under appointment by the Bishop in either the Oklahoma Annual Conference or the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference. This tuition remission is also available to their spouses and dependent children. Only students who are admitted to the university unconditionally are eligible for this scholarship. This scholarship is ONLY for undergraduate study. It is a university requirement that any applicant for this scholarship must complete the current FAFSA in order to be considered for it. After your federal and state grants have been applied, the Minister's Remission will cover your remaining tuition (fees and books not included).

NOTE: If the tuition request is for a dependent child of a minister, that dependent must be unmarried, 24 years of age or younger and claimed as a dependent on the parent's 2010 Federal Income Tax Return. A copy of the student's and the parent's Federal Income Tax Return (first page only) must be attached to this form. When a student turns 25 or marries, he/she will not be eligible for tuition remission beginning the next semester. Students must be making satisfactory academic progress as defined by the Financial Aid office to be eligible for renewal of this tuition remission.
